Comments re Evaluation of GSA
by NAPA

The proposal to go forward to NAPA and GSA is an excellent beginning, in my judgement. Throughout the paper, we talk about undertaking action on our own to correct deficiencies in GSA's performance. It might be useful to stipulate up front that the judgement of performance shall be rendered by this Agency in evaluating its ability to carry out its unique mission. Otherwise, we might well find ourselves bogged down in an interminable, legalistic hassle over the definition of suitable levels of performance.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration
FROM: John H. Stein
Acting Deputy Director for Operations
SUBJECT: Relationship with GSA (U)
REFERENCE: Your Routing and Record Sheet, dated
7 October 1980

The paper you forwarded the DDO for review appears to be an excellent starting point to effect an improved responsiveness from GSA. The proposed arrangements in the Executive Summary suit our projected requirements and offer some additional operational flexibility. I would defer to your Office of Logistics to develop the fine tuning that will permit these suggestions to become reality, but we remain very supportive of this initiative. (U)
